

EDITORIAL POLICY

Antiguo Oriente is the scholarly journal of the Centro de Estudios de Historia del Antiguo Oriente (Institute of Studies for the History of the Ancient East), History Department, School of Philosophy and Arts, Argentine Catholic University. We will consider for publication manuscripts related to the history of the societies of the Ancient Near East and the Eastern Mediterranean from the Paleolithic through the Roman-Hellenistic period. It is published once a year. Antiguo Oriente publishes articles and book reviews in Spanish, English and French. Deadline for submissions: May 31st. Papers that do not take into account the instructions for contributors will not be accepted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles

1. Authors should submit one paper copy of the article by post, another in a CD and one copy by electronic mail (in Word for Windows). The maximum length of the paper should be 10,000 words (including footnotes and appendixes); size: A4; font: Times New Roman 12; space: 1,5; footnotes: 10 pt. It should include an abstract in English (maximum 200 words) and four keywords in Spanish and English.
2. A cover letter accompanying the paper should include the author's name and last name, address, telephone and/or fax number, e-mail address, academic position and working place. Papers should NOT identify the author.
3. Papers submitted to Antiguo Oriente are sent to one or two anonymous referees. They evaluate the importance of the topic; the quality and clarity of the writing and the methodology of the author(s). They recommend whether the paper be accepted, rejected or accepted with modifications. It is understood that any acceptance of a paper is conditional until the necessary revisions have been made, and until the editor considers the paper ready for publication. Papers rejected will not be returned to the sender.
4. One copy of Antiguo Oriente will be sent to each contributor, or 10 (ten) offprints of his/her article.
5. Notes should appear at the bottom of the page and follow the author-date system of citation. E.g.: Hornung 1992: 15, 114-115.
6. Long quotations should be in Italics.
7. Images: if you have images, first contact editors at cehao_uca@yahoo.com.ar. Copies should be sent in high definition, black and white, in JPEG, TIFF format or similar, 300 dpi, in a separate file. Send a copy of the images by e-mail and include one copy in the CD. Identify the copyright of the images or the original source.
8. Include a compiled list of references of all the works cited in the article with the following information, in full:
 - Author(s) of the work, by last name(s) and initials in SMALL CAPS. When more than one work by an author is included, arrange the entries chronologically; for more than one entry by an author in a single year, arrange them alphabetically and add to the year citation the letters a, b, c, etc., as much as needed.
 - Date of the current edition and the first one; the latter between square brackets (E.g. Frankfort, H. 1976 [1948]).
 - Title of the work. Use quotation marks for article titles and chapters of books. Titles of books in Italics.

- Editors of collected works, symposia, etc.
- Series information, in full, if the work is part of one or more series.
- Journal title in Italics and volume number. Write the complete journal title, do not use abbreviations.
- Page numbers of articles in journals or books, preceded by p. or pp.
- Publication information, including city, state -if necessary- and publisher.

Examples:

HERZOG, Z. and O. BAR-YOSEF. 2002. "Different Views on Ethnicity in the Archaeology of the Negev". In: S. AHITUV and E. D. OREN (eds.), Aharon Kempinski Memorial Volume: Studies in Archaeology and Related Disciplines. Beer-sheva: Studies by the Department of Bible and Ancient Near East Vol. 15. Beersheba, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev Press, pp. 151-181.

PRATICO, G. D. 1985. "Nelson Glueck's 1938-40 Excavations at Tell el- Kheleifeh: A Reappraisal". In: Bulletin of the American Schools of Oriental Research 259, pp. 1-32.

Books Reviews

We receive book reviews and books for review that were published the last two years before the current issue of Antiguo Oriente. The maximum length should be 1,500 words, and can be sent in the following languages: Spanish, English and French. Copies should be sent by e-mail.